To Whom It May Concern,

It is my pleasure to offer my recommendation for Mr. Ken Pangilinan. My name is David Fowler and I am the Director of the International English Department at Beijing Haidian Foreign Language Tengfei School. Mr. Pangilinan joined our staff in the fall of 2023 as a grade 1 English and homeroom teacher. He quickly established rapport with the students and gained the trust of the parents.

As his direct supervisor, I observed Mr. Pangilinan with an unannounced class walkthrough and an announced formal observation during the first term of the 2023-2024 school year. Both of his lessons that I saw were engaging and he made sure all of the students participated and felt included. He was very positive and tried to look for examples of good behavior and work to praise the students.

Outside of the classroom, Mr. Pangilinan consistently behaved in a professional manner. He always arrived on time and even stayed late on several occasions to do extra work to help the students. He frequently volunteered to sub for other teachers and never balked when he was given extra work or responsibilities. He has a passion for working with the students. I feel that he will continue to get better and better as he gains more experience.

In March of 2024, Mr. Pangilinan began the final stage of a program to obtain his teaching license. He should be a fully licensed teacher in time to begin the 2024-2025 school year.

In closing, I encourage you to consider Mr. Pangilinan for a position at your school or business. He is a dedicated teacher that will only continue to improve as he gains more knowledge and experience. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Best Regards,
David K Fowler
